

DEANNA LORRAINE PARKER

Deanna Parker was born in Sandy Point, Shelburne, Nova Scotia on October 30, 1970. In February 1973, her family moved to Amherst. She attended R. B. Dickey Elementary School. She was an outgoing girl who enjoyed taking part in activities in the community. She was an avid swimmer and was working towards her Seniors, having passed the Junior level. In addition she was a member of the Trinity St. Stephen United Church Sunday School, a member of Canadian Girls in Training, a member of the Amherst Aerials gymnastics group and played tennis.

She was an enthusiastic student and loved school. Ever since she was old enough to realize that after you finish school one must go to work, she wanted to be a schoolteacher. This was still her goal when she entered Grade 6 in September 1982.

She died on October 9, 1982 as a result of the car that she was traveling in was hit by another car, which failed to stop at a stop sign. The accident occurred in Nappan just outside Amherst, NS.
